After a poetical salutatory by Miss Roberta Harper, the honors of the session were awarded as follows, the accompanying medals, &c., being presented by His Honor, Mayor Latham. Benior Class-Gold medal and 1st honors to Miss Emma Gregory; 2d honors to Miss Agnes McBurney; 3d honors to Miss Annie M. Shirley.

No Junior Class was organized.

Preparatory Class-Silver medal and 1st honors to Miss Lena Lown; 2nd honors to Miss Roberta Harper.

The Mayor, at the conclusion of the distri bution, made a few excellent and appropriate remarks, and was presented by Miss Roberta Coleman with a beautiful boquet.

Miss Bettie Keyes then advanced and pre sented to the Principal, Wm. F. Carne, esq., a handsome piece of plate, with an appropriate address on behalf of the young ladies, to which Mr. Carne replied in a feeling and appropriate manner, and the exercises were concluded by Miss Florence S. English in a pretty poetical

THE TRAGEDY IN WASHINGTON .- Yesterday noon Henry Johnson, who shot Thomas S. Smoot, was brought before Justice Morsell. at the Central Guard house, and through his counsel, Mr. W. D. Davidge and John H. Johnson, waived an examination, and was committed to jail to await the action of the Criminal Court in his case.

Johnson had on Wednesday an interview, it is stated, with Justice Buckey, of Georgtown, and told him of his determination, and wished Mr. Buckey to look after his property in the event of his meeting with any mishap. The Justice advised him not to entertain such an idea as he had expressed, and thought if he would calmly consider the matter he would avoid anything that would bring him into

Yesterday morning the sons of Mr. Johnson -two boys-visited the station-house. They stated that their mother was at home in Georgerowo, and had returned Thursday night. As the officers were in readiness to take Mr. Johnson to jail, they suggested that it might be more agreeable for the prisoner if they would hire a hack for this purpose, and thereby avoid meeting any of his acquaintances.-Mr. Johnson calmly replied that he should prefer to walk; as to his friends, he was not ashamed of anything he had ever done, and certainly had no reason to avoid any one. He was permitted to walk in custody of the officers, and proceeded to the jail to await the result of the case.

Mrs. Johnson is still at her home in Georgetown, and declines to converse about the homicide, of which she has been the cause, and an unwilling witness. Whatever blame is to be attached to the fearful act of her husband she believes should rest upon her. -Nat. Int.

The remains of Mr. Smoot were escorted to Ivy Hill Cemetery, this morning, by many of his former friends and associates, and interred

C. & O. CANAL, -In the Maryland Convention, yesterday, Mr. Carter presented two memorials, one signed by W. W. Corcoran and others, and the other by William S. Huntington, proxy for the U.S.; Richard D. Wallach, Mayor of Washington; Charles D. Welch: Mayor of Georgetown, and Bradley T. Johnson, Attorney and proxy for the State of Virginia, praying the Convention to establish a new method of electing the President and Directors of the C. & O. Canal. Referred to the Committee on Corporations. The Georgetown Courier learns from the annual report of the officers that the financial condition of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company is very satisfactory, presenting a favorable contrast in its management to what prevailed a few years since. It appears by this document that the cost of raising the bridges there last year was $22,000, of which sum the government paid $13,000. The toll for coal from Cumberlands is now a fraction less than seventy cents a reduction since the first of last March of over 22 cents. LONGEST DAY .- Yesterday was the longest day in the year. Those in sickness, sorrow, distress, and depression "took note of time," and knew it. The young and gay, and happy, thought it short.

THE MARKET, this morning, was quite well supplied with country produce. The vegetables brought in were, generally, of excellent quality, and the abundance is causing a decline in some descriptions. Green peas are selling at 15 to 20 cts. per peck; beets at 121 cts. per bunch; cabbages from 6 to 20 cts. per head, according to size; lettuce, cheap; radi-hes and onions at from 2 to 5 ets. per bunch; eggs have risen to 30 cts. per dozen; butter, fresh, 20 to 25 ets. per pound. The butchers had good supplies of mutton, lamb, yeal and pork, at previous prices. There is, as yet, no decline in the prices of fresh meat, though the cattle market reports at the North all mention a decline. The fish benches had full supplies of sturgeon and catfish, at usual prices, and a few shad continue to be offered for sale. Strawberries 15a20 ets. per quart. Spring chickens 30 to 40 ets. a piece.

BASE BALL -An interesting match game of base ball was played yesterday evening, on the grounds of the Pioneer club, near Colross, in the presence of many spectators, some of whom were ladies, by the first nines of the Mount Vernon and Pioneer clubs. David Beatty was scorer for the Mount Vernon, and Chas. Williams for the Pioneer club, and W. Keith Armistead, of the Old Dominion club, was the umpire. The game lasted from 2.50 to 6.05 p. m., and resulted in a victory for the Pioneer club, by a score of 68, to 25 for the Mount Vernon.

THE CANAL, -A break occurred yesterday morning at 8 o'clock in the Alexandria Canal over the Culvert, opposite Georgetown. The bottom of the canal washed out about 30 feet

There is no truth in the rumor of a break in the Chesapeake and Ohio canal at the Seneca Guard Lock. It originated in the sinking of the boat E. Stanhope. This has been removed, and will no longer interfere with the passage of boats, though it has caused some delay.

MANASSAS GAP RAILROAD. -The completion of Manassas to Harrisonburg will have the effect to revive business in Alexandria-a city for whose historic name and gallant, hightoned people, Virginians everywhere should entertain the kindest and most partial feelings. We hope to see her spring forward in the march of enterprise and offer to the people of the producing Valley inducements sufficient to attract the rich products of this country .-There is no reason why Alexandria and Richmond should not command the bulk of the trade of this portion of the State. Richmond has always been considered our best market for medals in these classes were drawn by Misses flour and bacon. Why cannot Alexandria compete for this valuable and rich trade?-Rockingham Register.

> PROPERTY SALE. - Quite a large attendance was present in front of the Mayor's Office this morning, at the sale of real estate advertised to take place there, but the bidding was by no means spirited, and all the property to have been sold was withdrawn, except a lot of ground, with a frame tenement thereon, situated on the east side of Fairfax street, between Queen and Princess, which was bought by Mr. John Laphen for $500.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—The Princess street Baptist Church (Freedmen's) will be dedicated to-morrow evening at half-past 3 o'clock, the Rev. D.W. Anderson, of Washington, preaching the dedicatory sermon. After the sermon an historical account of the church will be given by the pastor, G. W. Parker, and a collection will be taken up for the benefit of the SALES OF CORN .- Since the opening of the Corn Exchange here, the books show, besides the other articles offered, that one hundred and sixty-four thousand three hundred and fifty bushels of corn have changed hands. The exchange opened on the 14th of May. The receipts of corn have fallen off very considerably within the last week.

HARVESTING.-Harvesting commenced in this neighborhood on Thursday last, the 20th instant, when the wheat on the Edge Hill farm, a portion of the West Grove estate, across Hunting Creek, was cut. The late rain did not at all injure the wheat.

RELIEF FOR THE SOUTH,-We learn from a dispatch received here that the schooner S. T. Baker, which sailed from this port for Charleston, S. C., with corn, &c., for the relief of the destitute of the South, arrived at that port MOONLIGHT EXCURSION .-- The Young Meu's Christian Association of Washington made a moonlight excursion on the steamer Wawaset, to Glymont, last night. The steamer stopped here and took on board several from this city.

SMALL FARMS. - Applications for small farms in this neighbrhood are daily made, and persons having such should inform Messrs. Johnston & Lloyd of the fact, furnishing them with the proper information in regard to the land, &c.

CABBAGE. - Mr. Kirby, had in market this morning, some of the finest and largest cabbages we have seen the whole season. Mr. John Slater had his usual supply of very fine cab-

UNION STREET. - The much need repairs to Union street have at length been commenced, and the hope is entertained that it will soon be restored to its former useful and convenient will recommence in this city on Monday morning next, when books of registration will be opened in the First and Fourth Wards.

SICKNESS OF THE MAYOR .- Mayor Latham was suddenly attacked by sickness this morning, while at his office, and had to be carried home in a hack.

POLICE REPORT-MAYOR'S OFFICE. -- Polly McCuin and Alice Venere, for disorderly conduct, were held in their own recognizance for the sum of $50 to appear next Thursday, the 27th instant, for trial.
